

Pre-Order Your Own Your Own Limited Edition Don Drumm Garden Stake

This year a local treasure, the Cleveland Cultural Gardens Federation \(CCGF\), is celebrating its centennial. With its theme “Peace through Mutual Understanding”, the Cleveland Cultural Gardens are unique in the world. Where else can one find statues of Mahatma Gandhi, Mother Teresa and Confucius on a street named for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr; or scientists like Copernicus, Tesla and Madame Curie mingled with composers such as Bach, Liszt, Chopin and Beethoven? Cleveland’s Cultural Gardens showcase how Cleveland’s diversity can lead to peaceful coexistence.

Last Spring, the Tyrian Network—an inter-spiritual network focused on empowering peace through creativity, healing and the arts —was asked to sponsor the Federation’s Peace Garden of the Nations. This little “pocket park” garden hosts the dedication ceremonies for new gardens because it contains the crypt where countries intermingled soil from their historic shrines symbolizes world peace and harmony. Inscribed on the monument are these words: “In America, peace, understanding, amity, and cooperation among peoples of all nations.”

The Peace Garden of the Nations has long been neglected and needs major renovations to the stonework and landscaping. Tyrian is developing plans to improve and maintain the garden in honor of Bertha Von Suttner, mother of the Nobel Peace Prize and all past, present and future Nobel Peace Prize winners. Due to the hard work and vision of Mr. James Funai, Plant Science and Landscape Technology Program, Cuyahoga Community College; and Eric Brubeck, of Brubeck Design Studio, Tyrian has amazing landscape design plans for the renovations of the garden. While James and Eric generously donated their time to this project, bringing their vision to life will take a lot of financial support. To help raise these funds, the internationally known Artist, Don Drumm of Akron, Ohio, offered to design a garden stake to benefit the renovations. His beautiful aluminum sunflower is a special CCGF Anniversary garden stake and is being sold for a limited time. At only $60/garden stake (plus S&H), here is a great chance to stock up on birthday and holiday gifts now and support a great cause!!
